

Wallingford Museum - Quiz Agatha Christie at Wallingford Museum

~~ At home with the 'Queen of Crime' ~~

This exhibition at Wallingford Museum takes you behind the scenes to her home life, featuring photographs of her at Winterbrook House and memories of local people who met her. You can read several personally handwritten letters which reveal her love of pantomimes and her gradual frustration as her health declined in her final years. Come and enjoy this exhibition and the rest of the museum, once the restrictions are lifted.

In the meantime, this week's quiz is straightforward. How many words, of four or more letters, can you make from Agatha Christie's name. We managed over 100, so your challenge is 100 plus please. Let us know how many you make (just the number !!) on the Wallingford Museum Facebook.

'AGATHA CHRISTIE' - how many words can you make?

(target 100 words)

Go!